HARMONY HOLIDAYS

Presented By

LOUISVILLE
CHAPTER

KENTUCKY
NUMBER 1

LOUISVILLE'S 15TH ANNUAL BARBERSHOP SHOW

---

---

Welcome and Thanks

I am very proud at having been elected President of the Louisville Thoroughbred Chapter and I would like to take this opportunity to extend to one and all a SINGeere and CHORDial welcome to tonight's show.

Speaking for the entire membership, we hope that the magical Barber-shop harmony heard here this evening will so please and delight you that you'll want to hear more — long after this show has passed.

THANKS to our many friends who have supported our efforts by purchasing space in this program.

THANKS to the Chapter members, for their hours of practice.

THANKS to the members' wives for their hearty assistance (and for letting the men out at night to practice).

THANKS to each Committee, for doing the things it was supposed to do.

And THANKS TO YOU . . . AUDIENCE . . . FOR JUST COMING!

Howard Bonkofsky
President

ED HACKETT

Much can be said about Ed Hackett in regard to Barbershopping. Besides holding important offices in the Society, he is regarded very highly by many quartets and choruses who have had the benefit of his vast experience as a coach. He can boast the fact that many of the quartets and choruses under his coaching have found themselves either champions or close to the top in contests. Ed is a certified judge and has acted as general chairman for our show tonight. A lot of credit and thanks goes to Ed Hackett or Mr. Barbershopper which perhaps fits him better.
